When students need a little extra help — whether it's solving a tough math problem, finishing a science assignment, or building confidence in a new subject — Imagine Learning's on-demand tutors are ready to step in. Each session provides personalized, one-on-one support in real time, with no scheduling or waiting required. Students simply click to connect and get expert help right when they need it most.

Students can access tutoring directly from their lessons through chat or audio call to receive support in:

- K-12 English language arts, math, science, and social studies
- 6-12 French and Spanish
- National test preparation courses

Expand access with standalone tutoring for core subjects:

Schools also have the option to offer tutoring beyond Imagine Learning courses. This product-independent option uses the same secure platform and expert tutors to reinforce learning — making it easier to reach and support even more students.
